

Categories:

Adult Day Services
Ambulance Services
Assisted Living Community

Continuing Care Retirement Community (CCRC)

Counseling and Behavioral Services

Dental Services
Elder Law Attorneys

Hearing Services
Food Program
Financial Services
Funeral and Memorial Services
Geriatric Care Management

Home Care - Non-Medical

Home Health Care - Medical

Home Modifications

Home Clear Outs and Content Removal

Hospice Agency
Hospitals

Independent Living Community

Medical Supply Companies

Medicare and Medicaid Support

Memory Care Community

Palliative Care Agency
Podiatrist
Rehab Centers

Senior Centers

Senior Clubs and Organizations

Definitions:

Adult Day Care for Seniors
Ambulance Companies
A community where meals are provided and some assistance to the senior.
A community that has Independent, Assisted and Skilled Nursing Care to care for someone at all levels.
This would include counseling and behavioral agencies by counselors, psychiatrists and physicians.
A dental office.
Attorneys specializing in services and documents important to seniors and planning their retirement.
An audiologist or company that provides assistive
An agency that provides assistance with meals.
Financial Planning Services including Wills, Trusts,
This would include cemeteries, funeral homes and
This is someone who helps in the care decisions and guidance for seniors and their healthcare decisions.
This is a certified nurse's aide or homemaker companion that assists with light housekeeping,
This is a nurse, physical therapist, occupational therapist or nurse's aide that comes to your home.
A company that helps install various products or items to someone's home to make it more safe for them to live. This would include pendent monitors
This is a company that will help clear out the contents of a home after someone has decided to move.
A Company that provides Hospice or end of life care.
An institution that provides medical and surgical care to those who are sick or injured.
A community where a few meals and minimal assistance are provided to the senior.
A company that provides medical supplies and assistive devices to those who need them.
An organization that helps provide assistance when navigating information about Medicare or Medicaid.
An Assisted Living Community with specific attention to those with some form of dementia.
Pain control and management while still seeking
A foot specialist.
A community where patients go short term to recover from a recent illness or surgery.
A community center that provides resources, entertainment and information for local seniors.
An organization that provides various forms of information, assistance, entertainment and or

Skilled Nursing Community
Social Service Agencies

Supportive Living Community
Transportation Services
Vision Services

A community that provides skilled nursing care
An agency that provides assistance, information and resources to those who need health related, financial,
An Assisted Living Community that is funded through An agency or company that provides transportation
An agency or company that has assistive devices or is a optometrist or ophthalmologist.